

TZANEEN INDUSTRIAL

TZANEEN

DESCRIPTION

The property is located at Rietbok Street in the industrial node of Tzaneen, located in the Limpopo Province.

The surrounding properties, on the northern side of the R36 are all industrial or service retail orientated with the properties on the southern side all being residential.

The property is well profiled within the area offering good exposure to the busy R36, good height and sufficient loading/offloading facilities.

The property consists of a large industrial building, well-built of a reinforced concrete and steel frame, face brick and IBR cladding infill, steel windows and roller shutter doors all under a multi pitched IBR roof.

Internally basic open plan with admin offices and staff ablutions. The warehouse area offers excellent height of 8 to 10 metres to eaves.

Loading is afforded via a total of six roller shutter doors located at the rear and eastern sides of the building.

There is ample on-site parking on the concrete surfaces parking areas and driveways. The site is fenced and gated.
